SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE

Auctioneers of Literary Property & Works illustrative of the Fine Arts.

AT THEIR HOUSE, No. 13, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND, W.C.

On MONDAY, 2nd FEBRUARY, 1914, and Four following Days,

AT ONE O'CLOCK PRECISELY.

MAY BE VIEWED TWO DAYS PRIOR. CATALOGUES MAY BE HAD.

DRYDEN PRESS: J. DAVY AND SONS, 8-9, FRITH-STREET, SOHO-SQUARE, W.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 1*s.*; above five pounds 2*s.* 6*d.*; and so on in proportion.

III. All lots are sold subject to the right to impose a reserve; and subject to the right to bid by or on behalf of the seller.

IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased will be immediately put up again and re-sold.

V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within Ten Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.

VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.

VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.

IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.

X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

 ALL VALUABLE HISTORICAL MANUSCRIPTS, formerly in the possession of Sir Jno. Savile and Sir Hen. Savile, the historian. Only one other manuscript of the history of Hexham exists. This MS. proves it to have been written by AILRED, ABBOT OF RIEVAUX. It is "dictata a venerabile Hetheldredo." Hardy in his "Cat. of Mater. for English History," speaks of this work as probably by Ailred. He says: "A work on the subject is ascribed to him in the MS. Catalogue of Rievaux Abbey." Here we have a MS. which not only differs from the only other known MS. but contains a continuation. The second article is the work of HUGO DE ST. VICTOR, written in verse, and in a different hand from the other portions of the MS. It was taken from another MS. and bound up in this volume, as on one of the leaves is written "Liber Sce. Marie de Bellalanda" (Byland Abbey), as well as a list of treatises which at one time formed part of the MS. from which these leaves were taken. It is followed by the Charters granted by the early kings to ST. MARY'S, YORK. They recite all the grants of land, the amounts given, and the names of grantors, with the witnesses. The "History of the Foundation of the Abbey of St. Mary's, York," is by STEPHEN DE WHITBY, who is mentioned by Dugdale as the first Abbot of St. Mary's. Of this work also only one or two MSS. exist. The remaining pieces in this volume (especially one relating to the various Abbots and Abbies connected with York) are all of great historical importance.  What miniatures there are in this MS. are very good. The first one depicting the Instruments of the Passion was probably not originally in the MS. It is finely executed in a rood-screen, with Christ rising from the Tomb, and two angels adoring. It has no letterpress or border. The Crucifixion is also a fine miniature representing Christ Alone, with Mary and John, an angel holding the Saint Grail below.

28 1515 PROBLEMATA THEOLOGIA. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (94 ll. 7 by 5 in.) written in small cursive characters, long lines, 27 to a full page, by a French scribe, with 47 fine large painted and illuminated decorative initials of floreate design, with marginal extensions, contemporary French binding of stamped leather, the upper panel representing the Martyrdom of S. Sebastian; in the under panel, Christ on the Cross, His feet in a chalice, supported on the right by S. Catherine of Siena, and on the left by S. Thomas Aquinas, within borders of rosettes, fleurs-de-lis, acorns, etc. and the name of the binder, ANDRI BOULE (worn and repaired, but still in fair state) [see Weale, French Rubbings, no. 496] sm. 4*to.* SÆC. XVI do.

 On the first fly-leaf is written "D(a) quesumus omnipotens Deus ut eati rara," the initial D drawn in pen and ink in a floral design.

4 5 1516 Probus (Valerius). [Title within a woodcut tablet]: "Significatio Litterarum Antiquarum Valerii Probi et Fr. Michaelis Ferrarini Regien. Carmelitae divae Mariae," EDITIO PRIMA, lit. rom. long Ellis

Ynthia prima suis miserum me cepit ocellis.
Contactum nullis ante cupidinibus
Tum in costatis deiecit lumina fastis:
Et caput impositis pressit amor pedibus.
Donec me docuit castas odisse puellas
Improbus: & nullo uiuere consilio.
Et mihi iam toto furor hic non deficit anno:
Cum tamen aduersos cogor habere deos.
Minalion nullos fugiendo tulle labores
Saeuitiam durae contudit fasidos.
Nam modo parthenijs amens errabat montis
Ibat & hirsutas ille uidere feras.
Ille etiam psilli percussus uulnere rami
Saucius archadijs rupibus ingemuit.
Ergo uelocem potuit domuisse puellam
Tantum in amore preces et benefacta ualet.
In me tardus amor non ullas cogitat artes:
Nec meminit notas ut prius ire uias.
At uos deductae quibus est fallacia Lunae

1518 PROPERTIUS. CARMINA. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (90 ll. 9¼ by 6 in.) finely written in italic letters, long lines, 23 to a full page, by an Italian scribe, with a very elegantly decorated border of involved scrolls in white, green, blue and red, with an outer border of gold ornaments, a small medallion of a blind Cupid above, and an oval miniature of Orpheus playing a viola in a landscape below; in the side margins, the emblazoned arms of Agostini della Leta de Pisa, several fine decorative scroll initials and capitals in gold and blue, contemporary Italian binding of oak boards and stamped leather (rebacked in modern red morocco) sm. folio. SÆC. XV

 A VERY FINELY WRITTEN AND PERFECT CODEX OF PROPERTIUS. THE DECORATIVE WORK IS IN THE BEST STYLE OF THE ITALIAN RENASCENCE.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

1519 Prophecies. "Mirabilis liber; qui Prophetias; Revelatiōesq; nec non res mirandas; preteritas; presentes; et futuras aperte demonstrat." lit. goth. et lettres bâtardes, 2 parts, part I in Latin, part II in French, double columns, woodcut ornamental initials, green morocco gilt, g. e.

sm. 4to. Paris. per Englebertum et Joannem de Marnef, 1522

 A RARE EDITION. The first part ends on fol. LXVIII and on verso of fol. LXV is a colophon: "Impressum Parisii p guidonē mercatoris . . Anno domini MCCCCXCVI." The French part begins on fol. LXIX (wrongly paged LXXIII), and ends on fol. LXXXVII, with leaf at end containing De Marnef's device.

 The initial miniatures in this MS. are good English work. The binder has misplaced the text so that the Psalm: "Dixit Dominus Domino mea sede a dextris meis" comes at the beginning. The Kyrie Eleison and the Litany of Saints in the centre. It evidently wants the leaf with the "Beatus Vir" initial.

11 1522 Psalterium Davidis Regis, cum Canticis, Credo, Litania Sanctorum, etc. MANUSCRIPT ON STOUT VELLUM (172 ll. 7¼ by 4½ in.), written in bold gothic letters, long lines, 18 to a full page, by an English scribe; 6 fine large illuminated initials of involved scrolls, numerous painted initials in blue, red and green, some original sketches of figures in outline in pen-and-ink in margins (imperfect, wanting the first leaf, portion of the next leaf missing, an initial cut out, and ends with the Litany), old calf sm. 4*to.* SÆC. XIII

 From the mention of SS. Petroce and Sativola in the Litany, this Psalter is attributed to Exeter use.

49 1523 PSALTERIUM EBORACENSE, cum CALENDARIO. [ENGLISH, XIITH CENTURY]. MANUSCRIPT ON STOUT VELLUM (135 ll. 7 by 5 in.) written in bold gothic letters, long lines, 18 to a full page, full Calendar in red, black and green, many capitals in the same colours, with green ornaments, 116 painted and illuminated decorative initials, 7 VERY LARGE DECORATIVE INITIALS IN INVOLVED SCROLLS, some introducing grotesques, in blue, red, green and gold (imperfect, wanting about 31 ll. including the end), *new half niger morocco and oak boards, with clasps, by S.  This MS. probably came from Selby Abbey. The Calendar is perfect, and very interesting.

Weale, no.* 822] sm. 4*to*

Absque ulla nota [? ARGENTINAE, FRED. RUCH of DUMBACH, 149–]

 AN EXCESSIVELY RARE IF NOT UNIQUE INCUNABULUM by an unknown German printer. The attribution above is given by the late Mr. Dunn. The Psalter has the staves left vacant for the musical notes. The "Hymnarius" has MS. transitional neume-shaped notes. It has an inscription on title, "Liber Conventus Sce Cecile in Hoūn" (?).

 A most interesting volume from the library of Waltham Cross Abbey. On the first leaf is the inscription: "Liber ecclesie sancte Crucis de Waltham quem qui fraudulentur alienavit vel hunc titulum maliciose delivit Anathema sit. Amen." On the first fly-leaf, which was originally the paste-down, is the press-mark, partly obliterated, xx (ii) ii: al. p 61. There are no signs of the book ever having been chained to a press. There are three distinct handwritings in the volume, A. on f. 1, 8, 157, col. b; B. f. 1-b 7, 9-155, 229 b-236; C. f. 158-227. The most interesting feature of the volume, however, is a Catalogue of the Library, which has been added on folio 157. Although it is not specifically so stated, there is little doubt it relates to the library of Waltham Cross Abbey; the handwriting is contemporary, or nearly so, with the remainder of the book, although perhaps a little earlier than the note of possession reprinted above. CONTENTS: 1*a*, col. 2, Opusculum magistri Johis salesbiriensis carnotensis epi ad comite henricum de divine pagine auctoribus. 3*a*, col. 1, Incipit plogus dni willi abbis sci theodorici ad scm bernardu abbem clarevallensem. 3*a*, col. 2, Incipit liber eiusde de corpore ꝛ sanguine domini. 7*a*, col. 2 (Sentencie quaedam de ... sacramento altaris), Aug in epla ad hireticum ...
